

Please don't limit the ability of satellite radio to deliver traffic and weather. It's a valuable service that I pay for. There is no reason that they should not be able to deliver this service the same as ordinary radio.